

RACING AT EMPIRE CITY AND OTHER TRACKS—KNEEL NEWS

YELLOW HAND RUNS A POWERFUL RACE

Carries 130 Pounds and Gallops Away From Opponents in Pelham Bay Handicap.

THUNDERCLAP IS SECOND

Knight of The Heather, the One Eyed Son of Odgen, Beats Star Sprinters.

By HENRY V. KING.

Yellow Hand is the horse of the hour. He proved conclusively in the Pelham Bay Handicap at the Empire City track yesterday afternoon that there is no horse in training his equal. Jack Goldsborough has brought him back to the races more powerful than he was at any time in his brilliant career.

He carried 130 pounds, met with bad racing luck, but his great speed and stamina overcame these obstacles and he romped home the winner a length and a half in front of Harry F. Sinclair's Thunderclap, which beat the Lexington Stable's Bon Homme a head for the second end of the purse.

The Pelham was the feature of an excellent card. And to see it and the other races decided the largest crowd of the meeting visited the course. There was a high wind blowing all day but it wasn't very cold, and in the sun it was springlike.

Only four horses went to the post in the Pelham. They were Yellow Hand, Thunderclap, Bon Homme and Donnacona. The start was a good one, but before the first sixteenth of a mile had been covered Bon Homme was swinging along in front at a nice, steady pace a length in front of Donnacona.

Soon after the start and again while rounding the first turn Yellow Hand interfered with, but Charles Miller quickly settled him back into his stride and contented himself with trailing the lead held by Bon Homme all the way up the backstretch.

Yellow Hand responds to Call.

As the bend into the homestretch was reached Miller gave Yellow Hand his head and a kick in the ribs and the son of Rosewood fairly flew over the ground and when straightened out for home was at Bon Homme's heels. In the next few jumps he was in front and the race was as good as over, for he had to do to retain command was gallop leisurely to the judges. His opponents were staggering and unable to make him extend himself.

Knight of the Heather has developed into one of the best sprinters in the country. In the Ramapo Handicap he defeated a million dollars' worth of horses, including Knobbles, Dimmesdale, Gladiator and Black Rascal, in a gallop. Knight of the Heather is a sturdy little black, a three-year-old son of Odgen and Madchen. He was raced by R. T. Wilson last season, and early this spring he was sold for the proverbial song to W. V. Casey. Tom Healey, who developed and trained him for Mr. Wilson, knew he was a fast and courageous horse, but he had lost the sight of one eye entirely and was going blind to the other.

When Mr. Casey got him he called in an eye specialist, who mended his poor eye and prevented the blind one from being a handicap. He was then sold to the late Mr. Wilson, who was a successful breeder and a fine racing man. He was then sold to the late Mr. Wilson, who was a successful breeder and a fine racing man. He was then sold to the late Mr. Wilson, who was a successful breeder and a fine racing man.

Ponce Rides Patient Race.

Knight of the Heather didn't break any too well, and he was outrun in the early stages of the contest. But under a patient hand he showed a fine recovery and he was toward the leader until at the final furlong pole he went to the front and galloped home an easy winner by three lengths. Knobbles was second and Dimmesdale third.

Knobbles had the most early speed and showed the way until caught by Knight of the Heather. Dimmesdale had been going blind off twice but finished like a whirlwind.

After his race Mr. Wilson sold Dimmesdale to Frank Farrel for a price reported to be $8,000.

For the first time in many months the green and white spots of W. R. Coe flashed home in front in the first race. They were carried to an easy victory by Ponce, a juvenile son of Rosewood and Welsh Maid. Ridden by Turner, he stepped to the front in the first sixteenth of a mile and was never headed. Grandson was second and Bullet third.

Tuffer ran like a pretty nice player in the second race. He beat a good field in a driving finish. He followed the pace to the final furlong pole, where he went to the front and won in a terrific ride by Harrison remained there to the end. Whisk took the second end of the purse and Light Rose was third.

WESTBURY TO HAVE WHIPPET RACE MEET

Treat for Lovers of Breed Is Scheduled for Election Day.

By FRANK F. DOLE.

A rare treat for lovers of whippet is promised by the Whippet Association of Long Island, which will have a race meet under the auspices of the Whippet Club of America at the fashionable Meadow Brook Club, Westbury, L. I., on Election Day, November 8. I was especially pleased to receive the notice of this event, for I have long loved the whippet and think he is truly a wonderful dog.

It would seem that with such influential backing as is being given by the Whippet Association of Long Island and other high grade clubs the breed should quickly come into its own. As for this particular race meeting, its success should be assured by the backing of such sportsmen and sportswomen as are included on the race committee. They are Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Mrs. C. G. West, Mr. H. I. Nicholas, Mr. E. D. Morgan, Jr., E. Coe Kerr, all of Long Island; Mr. Bayard Tuckerman of Boston; Mr. Felix A. Leser of Baltimore and Mr. James Hadley of Erie, Pa.

The races will be run under the racing rules of the Toronto Whippet Association. The first event, open to all, has been named the Long Island Stakes and is a 200-yard handicap for both sexes. The first prize in this race is $150 in cash and a $50 trophy. The second and third prizes are $100 and $55 respectively.

For the first time in many months the green and white spots of W. R. Coe flashed home in front in the first race. They were carried to an easy victory by Ponce, a juvenile son of Rosewood and Welsh Maid. Ridden by Turner, he stepped to the front in the first sixteenth of a mile and was never headed. He followed the pace to the final furlong pole, where he went to the front and won in a terrific ride by Harrison remained there to the end. Whisk took the second end of the purse and Light Rose was third.

After his race Mr. Wilson sold Dimmesdale to Frank Farrel for a price reported to be $8,000.

PROTEST AGAINST DRASTIC REFORMS

Major Hitchcock Says Proposed Anti-Betting Law Is Too Restrictive.

The sentiment which has for some time been rampant in favor of a more liberal Sunday in the United States, and which has hitherto shown itself in golf and baseball principally, received fresh impetus through the open air horse show at the farm of Samuel Willits, near Roslyn, L. I., last Sunday.

It was the first affair of its kind held on Sunday in the memory of those conversant with such gatherings in this country. Among the participants were men and women who are active in church matters in the fashionable region in which the show was held. That it was a popular innovation was attested by the presence of more than 5,000 persons who came from all over the territory about Westchester Hills and from Greater New York to pay tribute to the horse.

One of those most conspicuous in the promotion of the show was Major Thomas Hitchcock, who was prominent in the aviation arm of the service during the recent war, and whose son and namesake achieved distinction by his exploits in the French and American aviation corps.

"There were those in the throng," said Major Hitchcock yesterday, "who saw in the quality and numbers of the gathering a protest against the constant encroachment by the reform element upon the liberties of the people. By many it was interpreted as a challenge to those who seek the passage of State and Federal laws so restrictive in their application that every vestige of pleasure would be taken out of the Sabbath instead of having it assume somewhat the same quality as on the Continent, where enjoyment in the open follows the fulfillment of the obligations imposed by religion."

"The attitude of the reform organization which is endeavoring to enact a Federal law prohibiting the passage through the mails of any newspaper carrying betting information is proof that determined efforts are under way to restrict the freedom of the press as well as the liberties of the people."

As a result of the final round matches decided last week Miss Florence E. Jackson of East Orange is women's tennis champion of the Empire State, which conducted the tournament for its employees in the financial district. C. Everett Bacon of Montclair is men's champion and W. C. Dunn and A. J. Willis, Jr., doubles title holders.
